Section 3 – Special Meetings
The President or the Advisor(s) may call special meetings as situations warrant. Notice of special meetings shall be given at least 48 hours prior to the meeting time and date.

Section 4 – Ad Hoc Committees
The President or the Advisor(s) may create ad hoc committees for specific issues and topics. Ad hoc committees can be established for no more than 12 months, but may exist for shorter periods of time.

Article XI: Standing Committees
In order to participate on a Standing Committee, students must be on the Executive Board or serve as an Officer of the JPC. Standing Committees will meet once per month, unless otherwise needed.

Section 1 – Assessment Committee
The Assessment Committee shall oversee all assessment processes for the JPC, which includes any individual program surveys, any idea-generating feedback, and overall JPC satisfaction. The Assessment Committee shall be chaired by the Vice President for Operations.

The Assessment Committee shall facilitate the writing, execution, and compilation of any assessments and data. Once the Assessment Committee completes all steps, the Officers on the committee shall present the information each semester to the Union Board Meeting.

Section 2 – Budget Committee
The Budget Committee shall oversee and ensure that the JPC is being a good steward with the Student Activity Fee and complying with student and university procedures. The Budget Committee shall be chaired by the Vice President for Administration.

The Budget Committee shall approve the proposed budget after the semester calendar is approved. Officers on this committee shall present the proposed budget for their events at the planning meeting each semester. Budgets must include detailed descriptions of proposed expenses and stay within the overall allocated expenses of the committee. The Budget Committee shall have the right to not approve the initial budget if the Officers cannot communicate a well thought-out plan.

If an additional event is proposed following the planning meeting, it shall be presented to the Budget Committee with a decision made by the committee and presented at the next Union Board Meeting.

Section 3 – Collaboration Committee
The Collaboration Committee shall be chaired by the Vice President for Membership, and shall hear each co-sponsorship proposal and borrowing request submitted by any Active Student Organization or campus entity, then decide if the collaboration opportunity should be approved. If collaboration is approved, the Vice President for Membership (or an approved substitute) shall serve as a liaison from the beginning to the end of the collaborative event.

All co-sponsorship approvals are contingent upon the approval of the Budget Committee for funding purposes, if outside the scope of the allocated funding presented for co-sponsorship. If the event extends outside of Georgia Regent University boundaries, proper documentation shall be presented to the Budget Committee to indicate that the event is in compliance with the procedures of that outside entity.

The Marketing Committee shall facilitate the planning and execution of all Marketing plans. In preparation for each semester, a Marketing Proposal shall be created by the Officers on the committee. The Marketing Proposal will then present the information to the Union Board for approval. All other decisions made between proposal periods, shall be decided by the committee and presented at the next Union Board Meeting.

Article XII: Voting

Section 1 – Voting Members
The Executive Board, Officers and Campus Liaisons shall all have one vote when present. Voting shall take place at Union Board Meetings.

Section 2 – Event Approval
All events planned by the members of the JPC shall require the majority approval, outside of co-sponsored events. Should a conflict arise between any position designated for programming as outline in the organizations Bylaws as to jurisdiction of a particular event, the proper jurisdiction of the event shall be decided by a majority vote.

Section 3 – Quorum
A quorum shall consist of two-thirds of the voting members as outlined in Section 1. In the event that a programming decision must be made and a meeting of the full Union Board is not expedient, the decision shall be made by the President, the Vice President for Administration, Vice President for Operations, the event’s Programming Director and Assistant Director. In the event it is the Public Relations Coordinator’s event, the additional vote will come from the Social Media Coordinator.
Article XII: Vacancy of Office

Section 1 – Succession Process
Should a vacancy occur on the JPC, the JPC Advisor(s) shall have the power to appoint a replacement to fill the position until a replacement may be selected following the policies in the JPC Constitution.

The replacement shall be selected within one month of the position becoming vacant. Applications for the vacant position shall first be accepted from the current Executive Board and Officers. If the position remains vacant, applications shall then be accepted from the Associate Members. If decided by a majority vote, the Interview & Selection Committee may open applications to both the Union Board and Associate Members at the same time. If the position remains vacant after all members of the JPC are given the opportunity to apply, applications shall be accepted from the university student body.

Section 2 – Executive Board and Officer Impeachment
Executive Board and Officers are expected to uphold the following standards. Failure to do so may result in being removed from office.

1. Remain in good standing with Georgia Regents University and maintain the GPA required.
2. Abide by the JPC attendance policy, outline in Article XV, including all training session, meetings, and events as assigned.
3. Uphold rules, principles, policies, and/or being fit to carry out duties required by the JPC Constitution & Bylaws.
4. Complete all duties and responsibilities as required by the JPC Constitution & Bylaws.

In the event that there is a breach in these standards by an Officer, the member shall be requested to resign as outlined in Article XIII, Section 3. Should the member refuse to resign, the member shall be removed by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board and Officers. Notice of intention to impeach shall be given at a meeting of the Union Board Meeting at least one week prior to the vote to remove is taken.

The individual is permitted to speak before the Union Board about the charges made, but is not permitted to participate in the deliberation of the Executive Board and Officers regarding the charges. If removal is decided by the Union Board, then the recommendation shall be made to the Advisor(s). The Advisor(s) will make the ultimate decision.

Section 3 – Resignations
If an Officer voluntarily resigns, they must submit a signed letter of resignation and participate in an exit interview with the President and the Advisor(s).

Article XIV: Attendance

Section 1 – Meetings
All Executive Board and Officers of the JPC are expected to attend all applicable meetings, as outlined in Article X. In order to be considered present at a meeting, each member may not miss more than 15 minutes of the meeting. If the members are more than 15 minutes late, or leave more than 15 minutes early, they are then considered tardy.

Section 2 – Absences
All Executive Board and Officers may not miss more than the combination of five unexcused scheduled meetings and event each semester. Officers may not miss their own events. Excused absences will not penalize the absentee. Three tardies equate to one absence. The designation of excused and unexcused absences are up to the discretion of the Executive Board.

After three unexcused absences a meeting is required between the absentee, the President and the JPC Advisor(s). After an unacceptable number of excused absences a meeting is required between the absentee, the President and the JPC Advisor(s). The unacceptable number is determined at the discretion of the Executive Board.

The Director and Assistant Director for Homecoming are only required to attend all applicable meetings, the Involvement events, and the Traditions events.

Section 3 – Notification of Absences
All Executive Board and Officers shall be required to notify the Executive Board, the appropriate Programming Director and the JPC Advisor(s) of any absence one month prior to the event.

Should an emergency occur within the two weeks prior to the event that will cause the Officer to be absent at an event, that officer shall be required to notify the President, the Vice President for Administration, Vice President for Operations and the appropriate Programming Director and Advisor(s) via e-mail.

Should an emergency occur the day of an event that will cause the Officer to be absent or tardy at an event, that Officer shall be required to notify the appropriate Programming Director via phone to notify them of the absence.

Section 4 – Office Hours
All Executive Board and Officers shall be required to work a set number of hours each week in the JPC Office, as outlined in the JPC Bylaws. Should an officer not be able to complete their required office hours, that officer shall follow the notification policy as outlined in Article XIV, Section 3.

Article XV: Funding
The JPC will be financed by the Student Activity Fee administered to all enrolled students at Georgia Regents University. Each March, the Budget Committee will work along with the Advisor(s) to complete all Funding Allocation Proposals to receive annual funding from the Student Activity Fee.

Article XVI: Stipends
Stipends should be based off the financial funding at the beginning of each fiscal year. All stipend positions are ultimately completed by the President and Advisor(s).

Article XVII: Collaboration
Section 1 - Definition
The JPC shall strive to offer opportunities for Active Student Organizations and university entities to collaborate on and co-sponsor events and programs.

Section 2 – Requirements
In order for an event to be co-sponsored by the JPC the following requirements shall be met:
1. The co-sponsored event shall be an event in which the Active Student Organization or university entities and the JPC’s mission, pillar and vision are all met in a mutually inclusive manner.

2. The JPC shall not fund more than 40% of the event.

3. The co-sponsorship must go through the Collaboration Committee, as outlined in Article XI, Section 3.

Section 3 – Process
The Active Student Organization or university entity interested in co-sponsoring an event with the JPC shall present a co-sponsorship request online to be presented before the Collaboration Committee. The Collaboration Committee will then vote on their interest in co-sponsorship. If approved the Vice President for Membership shall complete and submit for approval the Co-Sponsorship Agreement Form to the Active Student Organization.

Article XVIII: Ratification & Amendments
An affirmation vote of two-thirds of the voting members will serve to ratify this constitution and bylaws. Any amendment to this constitution may be made with two-thirds officer affirmation vote. The Executive Board and Officers must be given at least 48 hour notice to consider amendments.

Prior to the vote, the Advisor(s) must approve of all amendments.
