1. Concerns have been raised in our committee over attendance requirements for students who represent the University in an official capacity. These students must miss class on occasion and should not be penalized for this. To this point, this has not been an issue, but possibly could be in the future. We wanted to put it on the Senate's radar.

2. Women's soccer and Women's Rowing were approved by the Board of Regents and will begin competition in Fall 2105.

3. The inaugural season of GRU athletics is now underway. Go Jags!
