

Bruce D. Janiak, MD, FACEP, FAAP
Professor, Emergency Medicine

Appointment Date: 2002

Dr. Janiak earned his Doctorate of Medicine at the University of Cincinnati and completed his internship and residency in emergency medicine at Cincinnati General Hospital before spending three decades at The Toledo Hospital.

He currently serves as a Professor of Emergency Medicine at the Medical College of Georgia at Augusta University in Augusta, Georgia. His experience offers a broad understanding of adult and pediatric clinical emergency medicine and the administration of emergency medicine, including telemedicine.

National leadership has earned Dr. Janiak much respect in the industry. He served as President of the American Board of Emergency Medicine, President of the American College of Emergency Physicians, and President of the Emergency Department Benchmarking Alliance, an organization that defines the best clinical and administrative practices.

He is a lecturer and instructor, as well as an author, and has been published throughout numerous articles in the Annals of Emergency Medicine, Emergency Medicine News, Topics in Emergency Medicine, Emergency Medicine, Ohio State Medical Association Journal and many others.

Dr. Janiak is a general emergency consultant and also specialized in medical legal consulting and is considered an expert witness in Emergency Medicine.

Specialty Focus: Medical Legal, Telemedicine