

Faculty Senate Awards April 2009

Annually, the School of Medicine Faculty Senate recognizes faculty for outstanding achievement in a variety of categories. This year awards were also presented for excellence in teaching students and residents. I have great pride in seeing so many of the Department of Medicine faculty recognized for their contributions and excellence. The recipients included:

Clinical Science Teaching Award:

Loretta Davis, M.D., Professor, Dermatology

Clerkship Director Institutional Service Award:

Harold Szerlip, M.D., Clerkship Director and Professor, Nephrology,

Educator of the Year Award:

David Haburchak, M.D., Residency Program Director and Professor, Infectious Disease
John Fisher, M.D., Professor, Infectious Disease

Outstanding Young Clinical Science Faculty Award:

Thomas Samuel, M.D., Assistant Professor, Hematology/Oncology

Outstanding Clinical Science Teaching Award

Dr. Michael Madaio was extremely proud to accept the Medical School Class of 2009 Outstanding Clinical Science Teaching Award for the Section of General Internal Medicine. Congratulations to Dr. Jarvis and the faculty for their exemplary work.

Exemplary Student Teaching Award:

Shilpa Brown, M.D., Assistant Professor, General Internal Medicine
Pamela Fall, M.D., Professor, Nephrology
John Fisher, M.D., Professor, Infectious Disease
Laura Mulloy, D.O., Professor and Chief, Nephrology, Vice Chair, DOM
William Salazar, M.D., Professor, General Internal Medicine
Saroj Sharma, M.B.B.S., Assistant Professor, General Internal Medicine

Exemplary Resident Teaching Award:

Teresa Coleman, M.D., Associate Professor, Hematology/Oncology
Paul Dainer, M.D., Associate Professor, Hematology/Oncology
David Haburchak, M.D., Residency Program Director and Professor, Infectious Disease
Thomas Samuel, M.D., Assistant Professor, Hematology/Oncology
Subbaramiah Shridhar, M.B.B.S., Associate Professor, Gastroenterology
John Thornton, M.D., Associate Professor, Cardiology

Congratulations to all award recipients and thank for your significant contributions to the School of Medicine.