

HAIL AND FAREWELL

Welcome New Residents and Fellows

We are pleased to announce the results of this year's very successful residency match. Mathew Caputo from USF, Ryan Elvis from MUSC and Brittany Gill from our very own Medical College of Georgia join us. These three individuals are excellent additions to our residency program and we are excited to begin working with them.

In addition to new residents, we have three individuals that will begin their fellowships with us in July. Emad Al Haj Ali will be the 5th Head & Neck Surgery fellow, Erika Ho is the 16th Laryngology fellow, and Kareem Haroun is the 20th Rhinology fellow.

PGY-1 Resident
Ryan Elvis
MUSC

PGY-1 Resident
Brittany Gill
MCG

PGY-1- Resident
Mathew Caputo
USF

Laryngology Fellow
Erika Ho
NYU Langone
Health

Head and Neck
Surgery Fellow
Emad Al Haj Ali
MCG

Rhinology Fellow
Kareem Haroun
UTMB

Farewell Graduating Residents and Fellows

Congratulations to our graduating Residents and Fellows. They will surely go on to have fruitful Otolaryngology careers, taking with them the knowledge and experiences from MCG. They are commended for their hours of dedication and hard work, which will forever leave a positive impact on the patients that they served.

Chief Resident
Thomas Holmes will be joining The ENT Center of Central Georgia in Macon, Georgia as a General Otolaryngologist.

Chief Resident
J. Renee Booth will pursue fellowship training in Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery in Birmingham, Alabama.

Laryngology Fellow
Justin Ross will be joining the University of Colorado Health System in Colorado Springs, Colorado as a Laryngologist and General Otolaryngologist.

Endocrine—Head and Neck Surgery Fellow
Emad Al Haj Ali will pursue fellowship training in Head and Neck Surgery with the Department of Otolaryngology at the Medical College of Georgia at Augusta University.