SUPPLIER DIVERSITY POLICY

INTRODUCTION

Augusta University (AU) is committed to developing mutually beneficial relationships with historically underutilized businesses, including minority-owned, women-owned, disadvantaged, veteran-owned, local, and small business administration (SBA)-defined small business enterprises headquartered in Georgia with a preference for those located in the Central Savannah River Area (CSRA) or in close proximity to an AU facility. This policy is intended to ensure that AU receives goods and services that meet the functional needs of the university from the most responsible and responsive supplier at the lowest cost of ownership or overall best value. Furthermore, the policy reflects AU’s desire to create opportunities for all qualified suppliers to market their products to the university and to encourage departments and units of the university to offer opportunities to such suppliers.

These businesses can provide personalized, flexible, and more substantial customer service, which can include:

- A direct point of contact to provide simplified and quick communication;
- Enhanced delivery services to reduce logistical costs and delivery times; and
- Product diversity.

POLICY STATEMENT

As permitted by Purchasing Criteria, Augusta University encourages departments and units to identify and include for consideration qualified historically underutilized businesses, including minority-owned, women-owned, disadvantaged, veteran-owned, local, and small business administration (SBA)-defined small business enterprises headquartered in Georgia with a preference for those located in close proximity to Augusta University facilities when purchasing goods and services.
