

Augusta University

Policy Library

Use of Library Electronic Resources

Policy Owner: University Libraries

POLICY STATEMENT

Electronic resources are made available to authorized users: Augusta University (AU) faculty, staff, and currently enrolled students. Access is granted on campus or at remote locations.

In addition, non-affiliated AU users may access electronic resources by registering in-person at one of the AU libraries and using one of the designated community use computers. (Note: Some electronic resources cannot be made available to non-AU walk-in users.)

REASON FOR POLICY

Databases, e-journals, e-books, and other electronic resources made available through the Augusta University Libraries are licensed. Terms of the licensing agreements, which vary from vendor to vendor, specify who is permitted to access the information and how it may be used, and AU affiliates are expected to comply with these contractual restrictions.

AFFECTED STAKEHOLDER AND ORGANIZATION(S)

Faculty, Staff, All Employees, Students, Community Users, Enterprise, University, and Health System

DEFINITIONS

- Fair Use: <http://www.copyright.gov/fls/fl102.html>

PROCESS & PROCEDURES

What Is Generally Permitted?

- Searching, viewing and browsing the content of one or more electronic resources.
- Use of the content for educational, scholarly, and non-commercial research purposes.
- Downloading, saving, and printing limited data or articles in compliance with Copyright Law provisions.
- One print-out or copy of an article.

What Is Generally Prohibited?

- Copying or downloading whole works, entire issues of a journal, collections of data, or creation of large databases from bibliographic files.
- Systematic or substantial downloading, manually or with specialized software, of articles or other information.
- Sharing of passwords or authorized access codes.
- Modification of data or images from the resources.
- Redistribution, reselling, renting, lending, creation of derivative works, or other commercial exploitation.

- Removing, modifying, or obscuring copyright notices, other notices and disclaimers.

Use of Library databases and other electronic resources is governed by U.S. Copyright law and terms of contractual licensing agreements. Information providers retain copyright and all other intellectual property rights in the content presented. Uses beyond what is allowed by Fair Use limitations (sections 107 and 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law) require permission of the publisher. Failure to comply may result in individual or institutional revocation of access to electronic resources, as well as liability for copyright infringement including damages.

FORMS AND RELATED DOCUMENTS

N/A

APPENDICES

Copyright Law of the United States of America and Related Laws Contained in Title 17 of the United States Code: <http://www.copyright.gov/title17/92chap1.html>

APPROVED BY:

Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost, Augusta University
Date: 9/26/2018

President, Augusta University and CEO, AU Health System Date: 9/28/2018