GEORGIA REGENTS UNIVERSITY

Center for Undergraduate Research and Scholarship (CURS) presents

STUDENT RESEARCH
BROWN BAG SEMINARS
FALL 2014

Friday, September 12, 1-2:15 p.m.
Aaron Chase and Nick Labon
Determining the Effects of Endocrine Disruptors, Toxic Algae, and Predation in Freshwater Communities
Advisor: Dr. Emily Prince
Biology

Ashley Trawick and Jordan Williams
Peaches and Tigers and Indians: Press Coverage of the Integration of the 'Sally League'
Advisor: Dr. Rick Kenney
Communications

Sophia Viller
Introduction to Public Health Program Evaluation
Advisor: Dr. Catherine Slade
Hull College of Business

Friday, October 3, 1-2:15 p.m.
Asma Daoudi
Histological Analysis of Osteoclast Activity in Bisphosphonate Treated Rats
Advisor: Dr. Mohammed Elsalanty
Oral Biology/College of Dental Medicine

Ethan Brown and Stephanie Farmer
Performing Photographs
Advisor: Dr. Melanie Kitchens O’Meara
Communications

Chelsea Mathews
A Cultural Analysis on Vodka as a Floating Signifier
Advisors: Drs. Pam Hayward, Edgar Johnson, Will Bryant, and Dr. Melanie Kitchens O’Meara
Communications

Friday, October 31, Noon-2:15 p.m.
INQR 1000 Courses
INQR 1000 Expo: Food for Thought
Advisors: Drs. Andy Hauger, David Hunt, Deborah Richardson, Mark Thompson, and Karen Wish

Friday, November 14, 1-2:15 p.m.
Luis Armando Rivera
The Composition Process: An Academic Evaluation
Advisor: Dr. Martin David Jones
Music

Leah Smith
Pleroma: Shifting Paradigms through Poetry
Advisor: Prof. Anna C. Harris
English

Thomas Toomey
Using I-Cubed Theory to Predict Verbal Aggression against Gay Males
Advisor: Dr. Georgina Hammock
Psychological Sciences

Admission is free.
All Student Research Brown Bag Seminars will be held in the Jaguar Student Activities Center Ballroom.

For more information, call GRU’s Center for Undergraduate Research and Scholarship at 706-729-2083 or visit gru.edu/curs.