Although twenty-eight different majors are represented within the 2015 graduating class, many of the first year students majored in a science area. There are 41 biology majors, 2 microbiology majors, 3 biomedical science majors, 1 pre-medicine major, 5 chemistry majors, 1 biochemistry major, 1 anatomy major, 1 food science major and 2 exercise science majors. 2 each who majored in anthropology and agriculture and biotechnology. There are also 3 psychology majors, 1 computer science major, and 1 political science major. There are 4 engineering majors including biomedical and mechanical engineering. Several students majored in business, to include 3 general business majors, 1 marketing major. There are also 1 each who majored in interdisciplinary studies, healthcare management, mathematics, art, architecture, sociology, physical therapy and English.

Degrees earned by entering class: 82 Bachelors and 11 Masters
Students in the 2015 graduating class came from a variety of colleges and universities in Georgia and other states. The following twenty-nine institutions are represented:

- Auburn University
- Augusta State University
- Brigham Young University
- Clayton State University
- Clemson University
- College of William and Mary
- Columbus State University
- Duke University
- Eastern Washington University
- Emory University
- Florida State University
- Fort Valley State University
- Georgia College and State University
- Georgia Institute of Technology
- Georgia Southern University
- Georgia State University
- Indiana University-Perdue
- Kennesaw State University
- Mercer University
- Paine College
- Reinhardt University
- Spelman College
- University of Georgia
- University of Illinois-Urbana
- University of North Carolina-Charlotte
- University of South Carolina
- University of South Carolina-Aiken
- University of Texas, Austin
- Young Harris College

42 out of 80 (52.5%) of newly accepted students reside in dental health professional shortage areas.