

Augusta University is one of four research universities in the University System of Georgia, and the state's only public academic medical center. We are dedicated to training the next generation of innovators, leaders, and health care providers in Georgia and beyond. In the midst of new construction and enrollment growth, we anticipate the need for additional instructors to help meet increasing demand for undergraduate core curriculum courses. We invite applications for qualified part-time instructors to teach introductory-level courses in the following areas:

- American Government
- Astronomy
- Biology
- Chemistry
- College Algebra
- Communication/Public Speaking
- Elementary Statistics
- English Composition
- Geology
- Meteorology
- Philosophy/Ethics
- Physical Science
- Pre-Calculus
- Psychology
- U.S. History
- World Geography

Candidates must have appropriate credentials, including a master's or doctoral degree (with a minimum of 18 graduate-level hours in the specific area of instruction) from a regionally accredited institution.

To apply, submit a brief statement identifying the areas for which you are credentialed and wish to be considered, as well as a current vitae to Executivesearch@augusta.edu.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Augusta University is an equal employment, equal access, and equal educational opportunity and affirmative action institution. Also, Augusta University is a federal contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans. It is the policy of the University to recruit, hire, train, promote and educate persons without regard to age, disability, gender, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation or veteran status.

Conditions of Employment

All candidates are required to successfully pass a background check review prior to starting with Augusta University.
