

The Skill of End-of-Life Communication for Clinicians

Getting to the Root of the Ethical Dilemma

Kathleen Benton, DrPH, MA

Director, Clinical Ethics and Palliative Care
St. Joseph's/Candler Health System
Savannah, Georgia

Friday, October 13, 2017
12:00-1:00 pm
EC1204 (Health Sciences Building)

Open to all faculty, staff and students

About the Author

Kathleen Benton is the director of clinical ethics and palliative care at a local hospital in Savannah, Georgia. She is heavily involved in the region through volunteer advisory board roles and professorships at Armstrong State University and the Mercer University Medical School.

Dr. Benton has a master's degree in medical ethics and a doctorate in public health. She has authored and reviewed many publications relevant to the topics of palliative care, ethics, hospice, and communication.

Hosted by Medical College of Georgia Center for Bioethics and Health Policy and Leadership through Ethics program

