Medical College of Georgia (MCG) Technology Policy: Policies are in place to avoid legal recourse against students and faculty and to protect the intellectual property, such as copyrighted works, of the faculty and others against unauthorized use. If materials are shared with anyone not currently enrolled at MCG or in any manner inconsistent with this policy, serious disciplinary action may be taken, including but not limited to, expulsion. Students may also be subject to litigation. For additional information, please see: www.usg.edu/copyright

1. Students are prohibited from making any audio or video recordings of ANY teaching activity (including but not limited to all reviews or demonstrations). Authorized recordings of faculty by MCG is done through the ECHO 360 system and made available to students through posted to D2L.
   - All faculty generated educational materials, including but not limited to lecture notes and/or PowerPoint Presentations, histology or other podcasts, animations, and learning modules are copyrighted intellectual property and the unauthorized distribution and/or sale is this material is prohibited. Authorized material posted by MCG to D2L may only be used for educational purposes for currently enrolled Medical College of Georgia at Augusta University students.
   - Faculty generated material including photographs from PowerPoints or any reproduced portions of any presentation materials taken from D2L may not be uploaded to or shared on any public website or application including but not limited to YouTube, Osmosis, Anki, Quizlet, StudyBlue, SlideShare, and other similar platforms.

2. All ECHO 360 audio or video recordings of lecture material are for educational purposes only, and available to MCG students.

3. Electronic sharing of student generated notes, exclusive of copyrighted material, is only permitted when the utmost care is taken to prevent the notes from reaching external users currently not enrolled in the course. Notes should not contain any materials copyrighted or covered in Technology Policy #1 above. If material is stored or used in cloud storage or other web service that allows real-time updating and sharing of notes with other students in the class, such as Dropbox, Box, Google Drive or Google Docs, these shared folders must not be made available to anyone outside of those currently enrolled in the course.

4. Materials owned or licensed by the University Libraries can only be shared per Fair Use guidelines. For additional information, please see: guides.augusta.edu/copyright/fairuse

5. Any breach of these policies is a violation of the MCG Technology Policy and will be reported to the student’s MCG Promotions Subcommittee.

6. If a student is unsure about the use of technology, he/she should ask the Module/Component Directors and/or Associate Dean for Curriculum before taking any actions that might violate the policy.
