The Department of English and Foreign Languages is pleased to invite applications for the Chelsea Collins Scholarship. The scholarship is awarded annually by a committee within the Department of English and Foreign Languages. The recipient will be chosen based on excellence in writing, financial need, and other scholarship eligibility. The award can be used toward the cost of tuition, fees, and books for one year. The recipient should maintain full-time status and be making satisfactory progress towards a degree.

Application forms, available in the department office, Allgood Hall E227, are due April 1. To be eligible, the applicant (1) must be a major in English or Foreign Language, (2) have demonstrated a strong interest and talent for writing, and (3) must have achieved a 3.0 or better overall GPA.

Please fill out the enclosed application and turn in to the Department of English and Foreign Languages before April 1.

I am currently an English OR Foreign Language major, I will have completed at least 60 hours by the end of the Spring semester, and my GPA is 3.0 or above.
