

STUDY MATERIALS

Georgia History

Student should devote 2-3 hours of a focus reading to the following books in the Reese Library or may be ordered through the Universal Catalog:

- James Cobb (2008), Georgia Odyssey 2nd edition. University Press, Athens, GA – REQUIRED
 - Pages 1-92, 120-131, 134-137, & 153-158 (read the assigned pages and stay focused on the main story the author is telling and you will be prepared to take the exam)
- K. Coleman et al (1991), A History of Georgia, University of Georgia Press: Athens, GA – OPTIONAL

Georgia Constitution

Copies of the Georgia Constitution are on reserve at the circulation desk at Reese Library. They may be checked out three days at a time.

- The constitution of the State of Georgia is also available online in PDF format here: https://sos.ga.gov/sites/default/files/2022-02/state_constitution.pdf
- <http://georgiainfo.galileo.usg.edu>
- Georgia Government (2000) League of Women Voters of Georgia (pub.,) Atlanta, GA

The Georgia Constitution Study Guide can be found at

<https://www.augusta.edu/tds/legislativeexam.php>

United States History

The three recommended texts, in order of preference, are: Eric Foner, Give Me Liberty! (Norton), Paul Boyer et al, The Enduring Vision (Cengage), Alan Brinkley, The Unfinished Nation (McGraw Hill)

*These books all have new editions every two or so years, and any edition after 2010 is fine.

United States Constitution

The following is available from the Reese Library

- Pound, M.B. & Saye, A.B. Handbook on the US and Georgia Constitutions', (12th ED). University of Georgia Press: Athens, GA

Testing is done online the Respondus
Lockdown Browser in D2L. Please visit
<https://www.augusta.edu/tds/legislativeexam.php> for more information.